Many have been moved to tears and deep authenticity by the power of God through this ministry that is More than Music. Stephanie Pauline has been embraced by young and old in the church and in drug rehab facilities. "I have felt their tears brush against my face as I hold them and let them cry with me. I am so thankful and humbled that my story of brokenness and redemption has been a catalyst of healing for so many."

"Music is still the sweet balm that God uses to resurrect my heart when it becomes buried under life's strains and stresses. What a joy to carry that resurrection power in song to those in need; dismantling even the toughest defenses, unearthing hearts. The power of this ministry is in the essential quality of love; the true, living, breathing, reality of it, in the tenor of voice, and touch of hand, without the left truly even knowing what the right is doing. The power to love, and trust like this comes from communion with the Spirit of God. Something so beyond ourselves, yet paradoxically, within us as well. We can't conjure it or think our way into it. Through Christ we are freed to live love - that in itself...that substance...is the power to heal, and yes, to revolutionize this culture, one heart at a time, until everyone on earth knows and lives the love that is in Jesus Christ."
