

What If?

Week 1

What if there were answers to your questions?

John 15:1-17, Psalm 10:1-25

Opening Questions:

- What is the hardest question your kids or your parents ever asked you?
- How did your parents respond to you when you asked them difficult questions or challenged their decisions?
- Would you consider it a real relationship with a friend if you were not allowed to ask him/her any questions?

Questions from the sermon:

Read John 15:1-17, Psalm 10:1-25

- What did Pav say that caught your attention?
- How do you abide in Jesus?
- What do you need to apply from the sermon?

General Questions:

- What is the difference between a child who screams, "You're the worst mom ever!" and a kid who is honestly saying, "Why did this happen to me?" How do you know the difference when someone is throwing a tantrum and when they are truly seeking an answer to their question?
- What discussion are you looking forward to having in this series?
- If you could ask any question about God or the Bible and you knew for sure everyone would receive the question and give you a thoughtful answer, what would you ask?
- What are the some of the dangers of settling for simplistic answers?