

- What stood out to you as you did the reading in Revelation chapter 2–3?
- The church of Ephesus was commended for being good theologians and faithfully standing for the truth without compromising, but they were a loveless church. Why does lack of love completely undo the benefits of standing for the truth?
- If Jesus gave you a performance review or a report card what is one thing He would want you to correct or something He would commend you for doing?
- Which one of the seven churches is most like our church and why?
- The Church in Sardis was complacent and going through the motions. They were convinced they were thriving and healthy. Why do people overestimate themselves in God's eyes?
- What is a more dangerous for your soul; persecution, a superior attitude, suffering, affluence, apathy, false teaching, opposition, or self reliance?
- What is the one thing you need to apply from this week's study?
- Why did God allow the church of Philadelphia have to experience suffering and hardship while living in a society where they were outcasts without any power? Do you think it is a coincidence that the two churches living in the most difficult environments were doing the best spiritually?
- Jesus promises those who overcome will: not be hurt by the second death, receive the hidden manna, be given a white stone, with a new name, receive authority to rule over the nations, be clothed with white garments, have an important place in the temple of God in the New Jerusalem, sit with Jesus on his throne. Which one of the promises is the most encouraging to you and why?
